Mind the Gap web content accessibility checklist

Pages

- [ ] Pages have clear, unique page titles
- [ ] Text and background colours are distinctly contrasted
- [ ] Pages have clear section headers (titles)
- [ ] Colours are not used to convey information
- [ ] Lists are formatted with heading
- [ ] There are no time restrictions to view content on a page
- [ ] Pages can be accessed by screen readers

Images

- [ ] All images have alternative text, or alt-text
- [ ] Images do not contain text (except logos)
- [ ] Tables have alt-text describing their contents

Video and audio

- [ ] All video and audio content has a written transcript
- [ ] Audiodescription is available for video content
- [ ] Video and audio content has an accompanying text description
- [ ] This description enables access to the transcript
- [ ] All videos have closed captioning
- [ ] Videos do not auto-play
- [ ] Videos and audio can be paused, stopped, or muted

Navigation

- [ ] All web pages have the same navigation header
- [ ] The website has a clear site map.
- [ ] All parts of the website can be accessed via keyboard navigation
- [ ] "Dropdown" menu functionality is accessible with a keyboard
- [ ] Users have access to a "Skip to Content" feature.

Text

- [ ] Text can be manually magnified
- [ ] Text has a strong contrast ratio against the background

Other

- [ ] Content is accessible in multiple ways
- [ ] Link text is clear and actionable
- [ ] Your website can be accessed by all browsers
- [ ] You have a website accessibility policy that is listed or linked on every page.
- [ ] Users have a way to report accessibility issues on your site.